

16-24 March 2012

(9 days)

Spring in Bali!

Make friends with students from other schools
 Experience authentic Balinese life & creative arts (CREATIVITY)
 Home-stay, white water rafting, farewell party (ACTION)
 Help build at SMK Payangan High School (SERVICE)

Friday 16 March	Saturday 17 March (D)	Sunday 18 March (B, L, D)	Monday 19 March (B, L, D)	Tuesday 20 March (B, L, D)
9 pm Meet at Kansai Airport. Travel on Air Asia, Flight departs at 23:15 5 hour transit in Kuala Lumpur	13:25 Arrive in Bali Meet PEP Staff Travel to Payangan Introduction to traditional village life & cooking lesson Games Night	Welcome ceremony at SMK High School PEP presentation Team Building Day 1 building	Day 2 building PM lessons in Indonesian language, dance & offering making by SMK Students Homestays with SMK students	Day 3 building Basketball Bali vs. Japan
Wed. 21 March (B, L, D)	Thur. 22 March (B, L, D)	Fri. 23 March (B, D)	Sat. 24 March	49,000 JPY for 9 days
Sunrise climb up Mt. Batur – an active volcano with breathtaking views PM Join a School Club (Japanese, Spa, English, Basketball, Karate etc.)	Day 4 building PM White Water Rafting Dinner & free time in Ubud	Day 5 building Farewell party at SMK Payangan High	Travel on Air Asia, Flight departs at 06:00 Transit in Kuala Lumpur 21:25 Arrive in Osaka

This trip is being organised by the PEP Foundation specifically for students in Kansai.
www.pepbali.com * limited to 20 students, age 15-19

Led by: Niko Suyasa – Founder of PEP Foundation / Teacher at SMK Payangan High School.
 William Melville-Rea – Professor at Osaka University and Kinki University
 Lyn Melville-Rea - CAS & Service Learning Coordinator at Osaka International School

Cost includes: 7 nights dorm accommodation, 18 meals, all transfers, white water rafting, volcano climb, cultural and language lessons. Schools are asked to organize their own flight bookings and travel insurance. (Air Asia round trip from Osaka to Bali is 59,650 yen in Nov. 2011)