

Left: Concept drawing of Sahaja

Right: Stage 1 at present. Can you help with tiles, paint, furniture, or your time?

Sahaja Training Center will be the world's first hospitality school that provides eco accommodation and gives 100% back to the local community.

Newsletter

Fall 2011

Brigitte
Brigitte travelled from Austria and spent a month working with students in Bali on their English and hospitality skills.

CIS students, Hong Kong
Spent a week in October helping SMK Payangan students on stage 1 of Sahaja

Japanese Club started
Hiromi Sensei introduced SMK Payangan students to traditional Bon Odori dancing in September. She is also leading the Japanese club every Friday.

Christmas Gifts

- $25 Concrete & Steel
- $180 Sponsor a student for a year.
- $2,500 Be listed on the major donors tree and enjoy a 6 week stay at Sahaja.

Thanks a Million Campaign

For every million rupiah you donate to the PEP Foundation's school building fund, we'll thank you with a complimentary voucher for 2 nights at Sahaja.

(1 mill.rupiah equals 9,000 JPY or 110 AUD)

Sahaja will open late 2012, assuming we can raise sufficient funds.

Can you help build in Bali?

March 16 - 24, 2012

July 1-15, 2012

Will & Lyn Melville-Rea are planning work parties for both times. Details are on Facebook and the PEP website.

PEP Kenya

Did you know that PEP is also supporting youth education in West Kenya?

John Libal

John has been faithfully sponsoring 5 students every year since 2006. He is now living in Vancouver, following the March 2011 earthquake in Japan.

www.pepbali.com